How often in the stilly hour .. Of night the heavy sigh In sympathy has strove to meet The tear-drop in my eye; And then, like angels whispering Their messages to men, I've heard a quiet breathing of The sentence, "Try again."

How often, as I've walked amidst Life's ever tusy tide, And jostled with its favored ones On each and every side; When my misfortunes seemed to be O'erwhelming; even then Has some good spirit breathed to me The sentence, "Try again."

My guardian angel it must be, Or else the weight of care Had sunk me in the very depths' Of sorrow and despair; But, oh, my heart much lighter seems, And hope shines brighter, when I hear that spirit softly breathe The sentence, "Try again."

A BARREL OF BATS .- A very unusual phenomenon was revealed on Sunday last at the meeting room of the Creole Fire Co. No. 1. One of the members, on looking about the room, discovered that a large number of bats had insinuated themselves behind the picture frames hanging against the walls, and were stowed, as he expressed it, two tier deep. Upon further examination, it was found that these constituted a mere advanced guard or foraging party. The main army was snugly entrenched elsewhere. An entrance had been effected under the gutter, through which they worked themselves down between the brick and wall plastering, where an immense colony was established, the number of which i terds keeping constantly on hand a good assortstaggered belief. The entire space between the timbers to which the laths were nailed—at least ten feet square was literally crammed with these creatures, being packed in three tier deep. A small opening in the plastering admitted the escape of the few found behind the picture frames. War was at once declared, and upon displacing the plastering and laths, a ruthless butchery was commenced, which was kept up for several hours. We visited the scene yesterday morning, and were utterly confounded at the vast number of dead and wounded bats. A flour barrel was twothirds full, and enough lying about the floor to fill it to the brim. - Mobile Tri- public often deceived, could not believe the simple

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL A PHENOMENON IN MEDICINE. LIEALTH RESTORED AND LIFE

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING
ELIXIB OR CORDIAL.—At first the properties attributed to Pro'. MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR OR CORDIAL were deemed fabulous. The Bu. facts, undeniable facts attested by witnesses of the highest class and character, are now triumph ing over all doubts. INCREDULITY IS OVER-THROWN by a mass of testimony which is perfectly irresistable.

The Ruxis remedies, in all cases, the deplorable eriis arising from a misuse or abuse of the various organs which make up the words ful machine called aan. It restores to full vigor every delicate funcden connected with that mysterious compound tives are out of employment. These constitute nearly one third of the working function of human life. To persons of feeble muscular frame, or deficient in vital power, it is recompopulation. This state of things extends mended as the only means of communicating that energy which is necessary to the proper enjoyment of all the natural appetites, as well as the higher mental attributes. Its beneficial effects are not conaned to either sex or to any age. The feeble girl, the ailing wife, the listless, ernewated youth, the verworn man of business, the victim of nervous de-pression, the individual suffering from general debility, or from the weakness of a single organ, will all find immediate and permanent relief from the position to keep up the standard, even at the expense of being idle. The difficulty of making collections from the South and themselves beyond the reach of medicine. Let not even these despair. The Elixir deals with discase as it exists, without reference to causes, and will not only remove the disorder itself, but REBUILD THE BROKEN CONSTITUTION.

The derangements of the system, leading to ner yous diseases, and the forms of nervous disease it self, are so numerous that it would require a column to enumerate the maladies for which this prepara-ration is a specific. A few, however, may be enume-rated, viz: neuralgia, tic dolereaux, headache, incip-ient paralysis, hysteria, palpitation of the heart, spi-creative organs, sexual incompetency, melancholy, monomania, fluor albus, uking at the atomach, fe-male irregularities, a chronic lendency to miscarrisge, emaciation, and all complaints growing out of a free indulgence of the passions, and all barrenness chat does not proceed from organic causes beyond the reach of medicine.

Whenever the organs to be acted upon are free from malformation or strictural diseases it is averred

MORSE'S INVIGORATING BLIXER will replace weakness with strength, incapacity with efficiency, irregularity with uniform and natural so tivity, and this not only without hazard of reaction, but with a happy effect on the general organization.

Bear in mind that all maladies, wherever they begin, finish with the nervous system, and that the paralisation of the nerves or motion and sensation is physical death. Bear in mind also, that for every kind of nervous disease the Elixer Cordial is the only reliable preparation known.

CAUTION. DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has been counterfeited by some unprincipled persons. In future, all the genuine Cordial will have the proprietor's fac simile pasted over the cork of each bottle, and the following words blown in the glass Dr., Morse's Invigorating Cordial, C. H.
